Blue Book Electives
Student Enrollment

Elective courses, including:
- Art of Observation
- Doctors in Medicine
- Global Health
- Healing by Killing
- History of Medicine
- Introduction to Medical Humanities
- Suffering: Pathographies of Mental Illness
- The Healer's Art

Blue Books

Medical Humanities and Ethics Certificate Program
Student Enrollment

The Certificate Program is now a recognized member of the Scholarship Concentrations

Interprofessional Education
The Brewsters: Interprofessional Ethics and Professionalism

Scholarly Achievements
Faculty Productivity

Core Faculty Members
Thomas R. Cole, PhD
Jeffrey Spike, PhD
Nathan Carlin, PhD
Rebecca Lunstroth, JD

Major Donor:
McGovern Foundation

Other Donors:
Vivian L. Smith Foundation
Alexander Foundation
Fondren Foundation
Regina Rogers
Nancy Powell Moore
Barbara and Barry Lewis Foundation
Antonia Day

Residency Education
Sacred Vocation Program

"nurturing the spirit of healthcare workers"

Required Courses

Compensatorily, the required courses for students in the first 10 years of the program:

- Clinical Applications in the Medical School
- Introduction to Public Health Ethics - course director
- Direct or co-direct 5 required courses

- Over 114 direct contact hours in the SPH and GSBS
- Over 187 direct contact hours in the Medical School

- Direct contact hours in the MD Program