A Conversation between an Artist and a Scientist

Gael Stack, MFA
Artist
Professor of Art and Art History
University of Houston

Clifford Dacso, MD, MPH, MBA
Philip J. Carroll, Jr. Professor of Translational Molecular and Cellular Biology, and Professor of Medicine, Baylor College of Medicine

Wednesday, January 17th
4:30 – 5:30 PM
MSB 3.001

The works of artist Gael Stack have been exhibited nationally and internationally. Past exhibitions include the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, the Dallas Museum of Art, the Blanton Museum (Austin, TX), Yale University Art Gallery, the Menil Collection, Stedman/Hubbard Gallery (Paris), and the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston. Ms. Stack is also Professor of Art and Art History at the Kathrine G. McGovern College of the Arts at the University of Houston.

Dr. Clifford Dacso is the Philip J. Carroll, Jr. Professor of Translational Molecular and Cellular Biology and Professor of Medicine at Baylor College of Medicine.

For more information about the Arts and Resilience Series, visit http://go.uth.edu/the-arts