Was Mozart poisoned, or did he simply have a strep infection? Which composer’s syphilis medicine caused his severe mental illness and multiple suicide attempts? Why did Beethoven lose his hearing? Pianist Mark Vogel returns for his next performance lecture exploring the history of medicine through the music of famous classical composers.

Mark Vogel is a renowned Music Director, Performer, and Conductor. He serves as Artistic Director for International Voices Houston.

The Arts and Resilience Program
Sponsored by the Dean’s Office and the McGovern Center for Humanities and Ethics

go.uth.edu/the-arts