

John P. McGovern, MD
Center for Humanities & Ethics

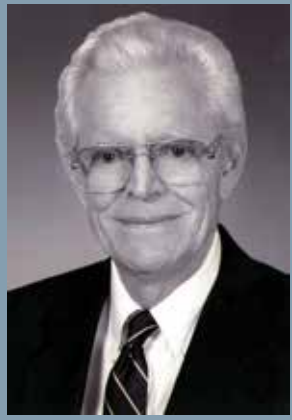

Celebrating

15 YEARS

2004

McGovern Center for Health, Humanities and the Human Spirit is established with $3.5 M endowment by the McGovern Foundation

John P. McGovern, MD

2005

Center creates and offers 8 unique elective courses

2007

Center launches the Medical Humanities Certificate Program with 5 MSIIIs

Hosted Faculty Health Conference

2009

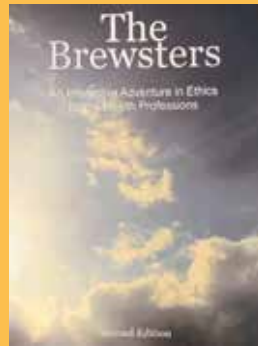

McGovern Foundation endows Certificate Program

Sacred Vocation Program is piloted with Internal Medicine residents

McGovern Center awarded with Quality Enhancement Plan: Beyond Silos, addressing interprofessional ethics education

The Brewsters, an interactive adventure in ethics and professionalism is integrated into all 6 schools. Over 10,000 students have completed the activity

2008

Campus-Wide Ethics Program is launched with funding secured from the University and the McGovern Foundation

Held Appreciative Inquiry Conference

2011

Hosted Social Justice and the Health Professions Conference

2013

Post-Doctoral program launched

Conference on Interprofessional Ethics

2015

Medical Humanities: An Introduction is published

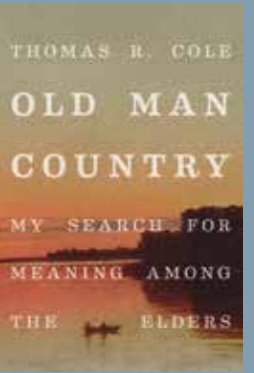

2016

McGovern Foundation pledges $20M to McGovern Center

2020

Old Man Country published

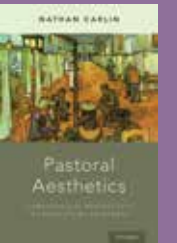

2019

First issue of Human Ties released

Pastoral Aesthetics published

2018

Poverty Simulator is piloted with all MSIIIs

2017

McGovern Center launches the Arts and Resilience Program

Hosted International Health Humanities Consortium

McGOVERN CENTER FOR HUMANITIES & ETHICS

med.uth.edu/mcgovern

6431 Fannin, JJK 351
Houston, Texas 77030
713-500-5970
713-500-5968 (fax)

UTHealth®
The University of Texas
Health Science Center at Houston

McGovern
Medical School