Fall is here, and the UT Center of Excellence on Mood Disorders is enrolling children, adolescents, and adults for our research studies. Continue reading below for more information on our current research opportunities.

Is your child MOODY?

UTCEMD is currently enrolling children and adolescents, ages 6-17, experiencing mood swings or depression. The study can be completed in two visits and includes a diagnostic visits and includes a diagnostic interview and neuropsychological testing.

Please call 713-486-2627 for more information. The risks and benefits of participation will be discussed with you.

Adult Bipolar Study
Currently enrolling adults, ages 18-65, with Bipolar Disorder suffering from depression and/or mania or who are currently stable.

Bipolar Depression Study
Currently enrolling adults, ages 18-65, with Bipolar Disorder who are taking medication and currently suffering from depression.

Bipolar Siblings Study
Currently enrolling adult sibling pairs, ages 18-65, where one sibling has Bipolar and one does not.

CONTACT US
713-486-2627 :: utmooddisorders@uth.tmc.edu